Educational Objectives

Clearly define below (or attach on a separate sheet) the educational/professional objective(s) that you expect to achieve during a semester abroad.

Please note: If you are applying for a “term away” you must: a) specify what unique educational objectives can be met at this institution that cannot be met at Cornell; b) demonstrate that a significant portion of the credits to be earned there will be in courses not offered at Cornell; c) explain how the courses you propose to take relate to your educational or professional objective(s); d) indicate the basis on which you would maintain that the host school is “of comparable quality” to Cornell; and, e) specify whether you have ascertained that the host school would be willing to entertain your application for admission as a special student (i.e., non-degree):

Anticipated courses at site(s) selected

Please designate the classes in which you would hope to enroll. If you have designated more than one site, you must do this separately for each site selected (please attach separate sheet if necessary):

Language Proficiency

For any site selected at which the language of instruction is not English, please explain in detail your level of proficiency (both oral and written) in the language, specifically including educational training and practical experience. Students must be prepared to undergo formal language assessments if deemed necessary by program administrators.

Please provide the following documents in support of your application:

A current resumé;

Your most recent Cornell Law School transcript (informal transcript, from CLS Registrar's Office, showing GPA).
