Career Development Office

About Us: Our office is here to counsel students when defining their career path, educate students on diverse legal career options, collaborate with student groups to present relevant programming, provide helpful resources, and connect with legal employers and alumni.

Our Staff: Check out our website to see a full list of team members and learn about our roles. You can also stop by our offices, located at 128 Hughes Hall, to say hello in person.

Meet with Us: You can reach us at 607-255-5873, or cls-careers@cornell.edu Monday – Thursday 8:00AM – 4:30PM and Friday 8:00AM – 4:00PM. We are available for in-person, phone and Zoom appointments through the Bookings Page.

ALL JDs & LLMS:

Law & Public Defense 2026 Opportunity: Cornell University's Office of Academic Diversity Initiatives, Cornell Law School Career Development Office, Cornell Career Services, the NYS Office of Indigent Legal Services, and the Tompkins County Office of Assigned Counsel are partnering on a summer academy offering training and paid public service internships for Cornell undergraduates and law students. The ten-week program includes two weeks of training followed by internships with trial lawyers representing indigent individuals in upstate New York. Students will gain hands-on experience in case investigation, legal research, motion practice, and courtroom proceedings, with a focus on criminal defense and family-related matters.

Apply by February 18, 2026: Email a resume and cover letter with a statement of interest to Adrienne M. Larimer at al992@cornell.edu. Subject line: Application Materials for – Your Name – Cornell Defender Program. Funding: Eligible for Summer Public Interest Fellowship (PIF) funding. Law firm-sponsored public interest stipends should be noted in application materials.

PILC Fair: The PILC Fair will be held virtually on February 5 & 6, 2026. Information and registration are available at 2026 Public Interest Legal Career Fair | NYU School of Law. The fair provides a forum for employers and students to connect for internships and permanent positions. This year, 269 organizations will participate. This is a fantastic opportunity for all students regardless of class year. Table Talk registration begins at 9:00 am on Monday, February 2. If you require any accommodations to participate in the Fair, please reach out to law.pilcfair@nyu.edu, and they will be happy to assist.

EXCELSIOR FELLOWSHIP: The New York State Excelsior Service Fellowship Program is a paid two-year fellowship offering talented graduate, law, and advanced degree program graduates unmatched training and experience in New York State government. Excelsior Fellows work full time at host executive-branch agencies and authorities, advancing the operational and legal aspects of important policy initiatives. Fellows will also participate in a Professional Development program focusing on leadership development and the fundamentals of New York State government.

After completing the Excelsior Service Fellowship, exceptional fellows may continue to serve New York State. More than 50% of prior classes of Excelsior Fellows were offered permanent positions with the State post-fellowship.
